The big day...

The nerves, the excitement and all the preparation for the day ahead. We have our specially designed pre-bridal suite for the night before and the morning of your wedding. This is a country-styled en-suite room with a double dressing area and free standing mirror for the bridal party to enjoy as the getting ready process begins.

With ample room for hair and make-up artists to join you on the day, you can be pampered and enjoy the luxury of everything in one place.

A time for bubbles, breakfast and the first of many memories to begin.

Civil Ceremony

From start to finish you can hold your wedding at The White Hart. From getting ready in the pre-bridal suite, to re-living those precious memories over breakfast the following day. We are licensed for civil ceremonies and over the years hundreds of wonderful couples have said 'I do' with us.

You can tie the knot in The Moorwood Suite, the larger of our two ceremony rooms where you can comfortably seat up to 100 guests. Alternatively, for wedding parties of less than 70 guests you can exchange vows in the light and beautiful orangery whilst enjoying the peaceful surroundings.

This can be in The Wingfield Lounge, with country charm, leather seats and cosy decor, alternatively enjoy your drinks reception on the private terrace. Our landscaped rear terrace features log burners, comfy seating and wonderful views of the surrounding countryside.

This is also the perfect opportunity for your photographer to capture your first moments of married life, along with all the laughter and anticipation for the rest of the day ahead.

Your wedding breakfast will be cooked and prepared by our experienced team of chefs, serving the freshest produce to the highest standard - the meal every guest remembers and recalls for weeks after the day has passed. The Moorwood Suite can accommodate up to 120 guests for a seated wedding breakfast, with a varied and unique menu to make your wedding meal truly unforgettable.
